

IS GOULD TRAPPED

Wall Street Rumor that He Will Lose Millions.

A BIG SENSATION PROMISED.

Said that the Wizard's Only Salvation Lies in a "Black Friday" Crash.

Jay, George, et al., Reported Away Short of the Market, and Commencing to Buy in—A Duel Between the Vanderbilts and the Goulds—Not the Speculators, but the Investors, Who Will be Benefited by the Advance in Stocks.

New York, Dec. 12.—"The money market is on the eve of one of the most exciting episodes in the history of the street," said Mr. George Crouch this morning. "Jay Gould, his son George and their followers are away short of the market, and the point has been reached where they will begin to buy in. Everybody, of course, knows that this will create a sharp advance in stocks."

"It appears to me to be a duel between the Gould and Vanderbilt forces. It has been known for some time that there was an unprecedented short interest in American stocks, and on settlement days, which occur fortnightly, the London people have naturally wondered and asked who the people were on the bear side, which is only natural with a big firm carrying any amount of stock."

"Now, why did Mr. Gould, who has more ready money than, perhaps, any man in this country, look with favor on the great export of gold unless he desired to bear the market? The heavy export could not have little alarm on the street at the time, almost $38,000,000 being sent to Europe, of which only about $27,000,000 has been returned. To be candid, it is believed by stockbrokers in general that Mr. Gould was largely responsible for this large export."

"It is well known that when Gould got a controlling interest in the Union Pacific he opposed Charles Price Adams, who was ousted, and some say evidently tried to throw the road into the hands of a receiver, but that Morgan and the Vanderbilts took charge of the floating debt for three years, and blocked the plan."

"When these facts are considered it will be seen that the Gould people stand to lose something up in the millions. The speculators, however, are not making any money out of the deal, but the investors, who are buying stocks out and out, are the people who are reaping the harvest."

"Some people say that Gould's only salvation will be some terrific crash such as 'Black Friday,' in which event he can buy in his short interests at a profit."

"But I think Gould will emulate Napoleon in a certain sense. As long as Napoleon was advancing with his army he carried everything before him, and the enemy fled; but when he gave the order to retreat the Cossacks wheeled around and hastened his steps."

Others corroborate Mr. Crouch, the majority adding that there was no clique or combination to down Gould, but that it was the natural course of the market and that Gould had placed himself in the predicament set forth and would probably pay the toll before he got through."

One broker who was seen but did not wish to be quoted said that he thought it was more the followers of George Gould and George himself that were short of the market and that the old gentleman naturally had to back them up."

OLIVER WILSON DIED. BALTIMORE, Dec. 12.—Oliver Wilson Doud, the well known actor-manager, who is dead at Mount Hope Retreat, near Baltimore, of paralysis and derangement of the digestive organs, brought on by overwork, was nearly 87 years old. His stage career was begun in Baltimore with John T. Ford at the Holliday Street Theatre as call boy. He next became a prompter, and afterwards was stage director for Mrs. Landor on her tour. He directed for J. K. Kimms, John E. Owen, Charlotte Cushman, and had charge of the Arch Street Theatre stage, Philadelphia, for Mrs. Drew. He accompanied Mary Anderson on her memorable tour to England, and from that time until two seasons ago was first with Lawrence Barrett and with the Booth and Barrett combination.

EX-SPEAKER REED'S PICTURE. WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The portrait of ex-Speaker Reed which was placed in the Speaker's lobby of the House the other day, and just between the likenesses of ex-Speakers Randall and Carlisle, has been, at the request of the Maine association, removed to another wall in the west end of the lobby. It is stated that Mr. Reed requested the change for the reason that there was a bad light where the picture formerly hung. Mr. Reed says that he considers the portrait of himself a success from an artistic standpoint, but he must let others say whether or not it is a good likeness.

DEATH OF AN OLD "PENNY" EMPLOYEE. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—Thomas R. Davis, auditor of the disbursements of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is dead. He was 91 years old. Mr. Davis had been in the employ of the Pennsylvania R. R. Company for more than forty years.

THE STRIKING TELEGRAPHERS.

Lined Out The Every Man on the South Pacific System Will Go Out.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 12.—The strike of the telegraph operators between this city and Yuma on the Pacific Division of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company promises to develop into mammoth proportions.

The superintendent of the Santa Fe ordered the dispatchers to handle the Southern Pacific trains between this city and Deming, N. M., but the operators bluntly refused, and the superintendent was notified.

If he tries to force the matter and put non-union men to work, it means a strike on the whole Santa Fe system. The district superintendent of the Western Union ordered the men to handle the trains between here and Deming, but the men would not, and the matter rests there until higher officials are heard from.

The trainmen between here and Yuma are holding meetings to decide as to whether they shall take any action in the present difficulty. In an interview one of them stated that if the Southern Pacific Company succeeds in defeating the operators they will be the next to be dealt with in a like manner. The operators have received assurances from every connection and they will stand by each other in this case.

RUSSIA'S SAD STATE.

Bankruptcy Spreading, and the Rich Descending to Poverty.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 12.—Bankruptcy is spreading in this city, and the general condition of trade is deplorable. The same account is received from all parts of Russia. In city and country insolvency is the rule, instead of the exception, and while the respectable poor are becoming mendicants, the nobles and formerly rich are descending to poverty. The prospect for the remainder of the winter is most gloomy. Fewer deaths are reported from starvation, but the area of destitution is much increased, the small number of deaths being attributed to the greater efficiency of government relief. The relief is now largely supported by the proceeds of the recent loan, and it is extremely doubtful whether any taxes can be collected in more than half the empire.

THE CASE OF ENGINEER CHILSON. RUTLAND, Vt., Dec. 12.—The jury in the case of Eugene Chilson, engineer, indicted on the charge of manslaughter for causing the collision of trains on the Rutland Railroad, near Brooksville, Nov. 30, 1888, in which several persons were killed, brought in a verdict that he was guilty of criminal negligence and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. He has been released on bail to allow of the legal points in the case to be heard before the next session of the Supreme Court. The only witness introduced for the defense was the engineer himself, who testified that he was very sick on his locomotive, which was a strange one, on a road over which he had never run a mile, and was assigned to this special train in the night time on "wild duty" against his own protest.

LONDON "Times" Man on the Message. LONDON, Dec. 12.—A dispatch to the London "Times" from its Valparaiso correspondent, who has been sending former dispatches antagonistic to the United States, says that the portion of President Harrison's message relating to Chili is certain to produce a painful impression, that the American colony is indignant at the action of American representatives in Chili, declaring it is based on personal motives and recklessness. The correspondent expresses a hope that Congress will demand all documents relating to affairs with Chili, when it will be seen that an apology is necessary from President Harrison to the Chilean Government.

GOV. HILL'S "BODY-GUARD." ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 12.—The sensational stories sent out from here by "specials" that Gov. Hill is accompanied by detectives on his way to and from the capitol to guard him from assault by cranks and that guards have been employed for the purpose of the executive mansion, and that all "visitors are inspected" before admission to the executive chamber, are wholly untrue. Gov. Hill has neither solicited nor accepted protection, but comes and goes as usual, and visitors are received at the capitol in the usual manner.

A Faith "Cured" Maniac's Crime. GREENSBURG, Pa., Dec. 12.—John W. Mack was released from the Bethany Home, a "divine healing" institution here, as cured of insanity a few days ago. In the night he went to the house of George Fisher, at Bolivar, and announced that he was going to kill the family. A terrific struggle ensued, and neighbors coming to the rescue overpowered the madman, but not until he had inflicted fatal injuries upon Fisher and frightened his invalid wife so she will die.

Blackmailers Held for Trial. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 12.—Sydney Coo and his wife Emily have been remanded for trial for attempting to blackmail James D. Dewell, the President of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Coo has confessed that she sent the enticing letters to Mr. Dewell and that she did so at the instigation of her husband, who threatened to kill her if she did not write the letters.

Attempt on Miners' Lives. BRAZIL, Ind., Dec. 12.—A diabolical attempt on the lives of many men was made here at noon. While a number of non-union men were at work in the mine, a bomb was exploded in some mysterious manner, causing parts of the mine to cave in. It is believed that no lives were lost. The atrocious deed is accredited to striking union men.

T. C. DeWitt, a farmer of Hawleyton, ten miles south of Binghamton, was thrashing buckwheat with an old-fashioned flail, when it flew off the handle, and, rebounding against the rafter of the barn, struck DeWitt, crushing in his skull.

There's a wide difference between the help that's talked of and the help that's guaranteed.

Which do you want, when you're buying medicine?

If you're satisfied with words, you get them with every blood-purifier but one. That one is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. With that, you get a guarantee. If it doesn't help you, you have your money back. On this plan, a medicine that promises help is pretty sure to give it.

But it's because the medicine is different, that it's sold differently. It's not like the sarsaparillas, which are said to be good for the blood in March, April, and May. At all seasons and in all cases, it cures permanently, as nothing else can, all the diseases arising from a torpid liver or from impure blood.

It's the best blood-purifier, and it's the cheapest, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar.

With this, you pay only for the good you get.

Can you ask more?
